The United Nations Association, Westminster, UK is delighted to congratulate the United Nations Association of Ghana on its initiative to institute an annual International Law Lecture.

We instituted our annual International Law Lecture in 2003 and we were delighted with the degree of public response to this initiative. The text of the lectures delivered in 2003 and 2004 are recorded on the website of UNA-UK (www.una-uk.org) and we look forward to posting also the text of lectures organised by the United Nations Association of Ghana. In this way, we can work together towards linking our organisations and our memberships more closely.

We look forward to meeting members of the United Nations Association of Ghana when they visit the UK to discuss matters of mutual interest and to devise new joint projects.

Let our co-operation grow and our friendship strengthen, leading to a world which properly recognises the centrality of the United Nations in the development of international law and thereby the promotion of peace, justice and social progress.

This statement was agreed by acclamation on the occasion of our Annual General Meeting held on Tuesday 27th July, 2004.

Signed on behalf of the membership
