

UNA Westminster marks UN International Day of Peace

22 September 2016 UNA Westminster joined other members of the London Boroughs Faith Network at St. Martin in the Field's church to preview a short film stressing that London's faith buildings (churches, synagogues, temples, mosques and other faith buildings) would be open to all visitors over the following weekend. The film which comprises a sequence of about forty doors of faith building opening to all will now be launched during Inter Faith Week (13-20 November). UNA Westminster hopes that the film will be screened during the We The Peoples Film Festival (7-21 November).

UNA Westminster's close involvement with the London Boroughs Faith Network dates back to 2012 when it coordinated events to mark the Olympic Truce linking these with the work of the United Nations. See News Items of 26 June, 7 August and 16 August (all in 2012).

#LondonIsOpen

UN International Day of Peace 2016
London's places of worship are open & welcoming

SHORT FILM PREMIERE
Wednesday 21 September 8am - 9am
ST MARTIN-IN-THE-FIELDS, TRAFALGAR SQUARE, WC2N 4JJ
entry via glass pavilion to gallery in the crypt

A new film featuring places of worship in London, followed by contributions from religious leaders and a peace breakfast.

Churches, Islamic centres, temples, gurdwaras, synagogues & meeting houses in London are welcoming guests of all faiths & none on 23, 24 & 25 September. The film is the first in a series and will be screened at Southwark Cathedral in the presence of the Mayor of London on 1 October.

 Olympic Truce
www.londonpeacenetwork.org

RSVP by 20 September
londonisopen.eventbrite.com

 